

U.N. Assembly Accepts 4 Red, 12 Non-Red Members

Russia Reverses Policy, Breaks Long Stalemate

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Dec. 14 (AP) — The United Nations tonight accepted 16 new members at an extraordinary Assembly session. An amazing and unexpected Russian reversal of policy cleared the way for the end of a 10-year stalemate on the membership issue.

In a quick succession of roll-call votes, the Assembly approved 12 non-Communist nations and four Red countries which had cleared the Security Council hurdle only six hours earlier.

Cheering delegates and the new members hailed the final decision as "historic" and a factor for peace.

Forester's Wife Found Murdered

LINCOLN, Neb., Dec. 14 (AP) — The wife of the Lincoln forester was strangled today in the young couple's secluded home in a mid-town city park.

Darrel F. Parker said he found the partly clad body of his 22-year-old wife on a bed when he returned home about 12:30 p.m.

Brown wrapping twine was knotted about her neck, a rag stuffed in her mouth and her hands tied behind her back. She was wearing a sweat shirt, which had been torn, and her blue jeans were found nearby.

Lancaster County Atty. Elmer Schelle said an autopsy showed death resulted from strangulation but whether she had been sexually assaulted had not been established.

Saw Strange Car
The small white frame house is about 150 yards from a main entrance of Antelope Park. It is about 250 yards from the nearest house.

Two workmen, who had been working at a nearby residence for several days, reported seeing a strange car parked near the home about 7:10 a.m., a short time after Parker had gone to work.

Sheriff Merle Karnopp said there was no sign of a forced entry.

Mrs. Parker worked as a dietitian at a Lincoln flour mill. She had not reported for work there today.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker were married in March 1954, while both were students at Iowa State College in Ames. She was graduated last June, a year after her husband's graduation.

The slaying was the third in eastern Nebraska in 10 days. In Omaha, 60 miles northeast, a cab driver and a university coed were fatally shot.

Questioning Of Otto John Continuing

BONN, Germany, Dec. 14 (AP) — Dr. Otto John knew he would have to face accusations of treason when he returned from Communist East Germany, a government spokesman said today.

Investigation of the former West German security chief's case continued behind locked doors. An Interior Ministry spokesman said no formal charges have yet been made and John probably will be questioned for several more days.

The debonair John, now 46, had been chief of the West German Counterintelligence Bureau for four years when he suddenly bolted to Communist East Germany on July 20, 1954.

After 16 months in the Soviet zone he dramatically returned to West Germany Monday.

"Given Injection"
A Danish newspaperman, Hendrik Bonde-Hendriksen, said John told him he had tea with a friend in West Berlin the day he disappeared from the West.

"What happened after that time I don't know," the newspaperman quoted John as saying. "I woke up two days later in Karlsruhe (in the East zone). There was a woman doctor at my bed and there were Soviet Intelligence agents around. I was given an injection and later another one. My head was not clear. I think there is a Mexican poison plant."

While in the East zone John claimed West Germany was dominated by Nazis and said he could work better for German reunification in the East. In speeches, he denounced what he called Western militarism.

GOP Senate Defeats Excise Tax

Votes 26 To 20 Against Second Leader Proposal

HARRISBURG, Dec. 14 (AP) — Gov. Leader's manufacturers' excise tax, after a month of ups and downs, was defeated tonight by the Republican Senate majority.

The vote was 20-26 in rejecting the second tax program submitted by Gov. Leader. The Republican senators killed his classified income tax last August.

The vote was strictly along party lines, 20 Democrats for the levy, 26 Republicans against it, with three Democrats absent, and one vacancy caused by the death of Sen. Davis (R-Luzerne) two weeks ago.

The Democrats' absentees were Sens. Derk (Lycoming) and McMenamin (Lackawanna), because of illness, and Bane (Fayette) who left the capital last night after declaring his opposition to the tax.

Four hours of haggling debate preceded the vote. Republicans claimed the 3½ per cent levy would injure business and industry. "Tommy-rot!" retorted the Democrats.

May Be Revived
Sen. Mahany, Republican floor leader, said there is "a good possibility" that the defeated measure would be revived by Republicans next week so that it can be placed in position for possible action in the future.

He wouldn't go into details but there are reports the GOP wanted a vehicle on hand for possible transformation into some form of a sales tax.

During the debate, Sen. Kessler (R-Lancaster), chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, declared "the welfare of our people is jeopardized" by the levy.

But, Sen. Lane (D-Washington) told the Senate that the argument the tax would "take a lot of industry out of Pennsylvania is a lot of Tommy-rot."

Along the same lines, Sen. Yosko (D-Northampton) declared:

"Industry is here because it has water, roads, access to great seaports, and many other great benefits and it wouldn't move because of this tax."

Dent, Wade Differ
From the Republican side, Sen. Wade (Cumberland) said the tax would be levied on items which the working man would have to buy for himself and his family.

"This is nothing more than an anti-employment bill no matter what way you look at it," Wade said.

Sen. Dent, Democratic floor leader, said after the vote that Republican rejection of the tax "represents a day in infamy well calculated to seal the financial doom of the Commonwealth."

The attitude of the Republican majority "in this great financial crisis," Dent said, "is a raw, violent and soulless betrayal of public confidence."

"What we have seen is a manifestation of lobby government at its worst. The unions were pulling for big business who apparently shape the devious political logic of the Republican leadership, have made a debauchery of good government molded to public need."

Challenges Republicans
Dent, during the debate, called upon Republicans "to get enough votes to pass your beloved sales tax in the House and we will pass it here."

Dent referred to Republican demands for the Democratic-controlled House to call for a vote there on a sales tax, which Gov. Leader opposes.

Senator Derk Suffers Second Heart Attack
HARRISBURG, Dec. 14 (AP) — Sen. Miles R. Derk, (D-Lycoming) was taken to Polyclinic Hospital here today after suffering a heart attack in the Senate. It was his second heart attack of the long 1955 session of the Legislature.

The hospital reported Derk is "resting comfortably." He was taken to the hospital in an ambulance after being stricken in one of the Senate conference rooms while awaiting the start of the day's session.

His previous attack occurred June 10. He was absent from the Senate 2½ months. The 65-year-old first term is a veterinarian and resides at Jersey Shore.

Heart attacks have stricken four senators since the 1955 session opened in January. Two of them were fatal.

Return To Russia
NEW DELHI, India, Dec. 14 (AP) — Russia's roving salesmen went back across the Soviet borders today, leaving behind them the question of just how far they have been able to pull India toward the Communist camp.

Adlai Enters Primary In Pennsylvania

By The Associated Press

Adlai Stevenson announced yesterday that he will test his strength in four more Democratic presidential primaries next year.

Already committed to contesting the Minnesota primary, he said in Chicago he will also enter races in California, Florida, Pennsylvania and Illinois.

"These primaries were selected to provide for expressions of preference on a regional basis in the East, Midwest, South and West," Stevenson said in a statement.

Yesterday produced another entry for the Democratic presidential nomination and, unless all signs fail, tomorrow will turn up still another.

Gov. Frank J. Lausche of Ohio announced at Columbus he is willing to be his state's favorite son candidate at next August's convention. As he put it in a letter to a backer:

Favorite Son
"I will allow my name to be used as the favorite son to whom you and others so disposed will be initially pledged."

Most favorite sons are only that, but Democratic politicians from states outside Ohio have spoken well of Lausche and he could be a winner in a dark horse race.

Tomorrow Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn.) will announce to a Washington news conference whether he'll go after the nomination he lost in 1952. If he says "no" he will surprise a great many people.

Stevenson, the man who won it last time, is the only other announced candidate for the nomination. However, Gov. Averell Harriman of New York has sounded more and more like a candidate.

AEC Worried By Shortage Of Scientists

CLEVELAND, Dec. 14 (AP) — The chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission reported tonight the nation's shortage of scientists has become so "grim" that it could endanger "all of our blessings, even our freedom."

Colleges and universities are providing less than half the number of scientists and engineers the country needs, Louis L. Strauss said in an address prepared for the Nuclear Engineering and Science Congress.

"This figure is made more distressing by the realization that the shortage will become worse before we can possibly correct it," he added. "Soviet Russia, meanwhile, is educating twice as many engineers and scientists as we are."

As one corrective step, Strauss announced, a summer institute for the specialized training of faculty members of American engineering colleges will be opened next June at the Argonne National Laboratory, Chicago.

It will be sponsored by the AEC, the National Science Foundation and the American Society for Engineering Education.

Sixty selected science teachers will be given a two-month course in nuclear engineering, separation chemistry, chemical engineering, metallurgy and nuclear instrumentation, Strauss said.

UAL Strike Ends
CHICAGO, Dec. 14 (AP) — United Air Lines and striking AFL-CIO flight engineers today announced settlement of a seven weeks walk-out.

TWO TRADITIONS OF CHRISTMAS are shown in this photo taken in Court House Square. The trees are decked out in their annual seasonal finery. Their lights shine on another great Christmas symbol—the double-barred cross which symbolizes Man's constant fight to control tuberculosis. In this case it is also a reminder (from the Monroe County Tuberculosis and Health Society) to "Buy and Use Your Christmas Seals." Nearly 3,000 Monroe County residents still have not returned purchase money for their seals. Funds are used to finance the society's all-year TB prevention, control and health program in Monroe County.

NAM Invites 'Peace' Talks

NEW YORK, Dec. 14 (AP) — The National Assn. of Manufacturers would welcome a chance to talk "peace" with the newly formed AFL-CIO, a spokesman said today.

"We would like a definite proposal of a modern x-ray machine, which has been functioning several months for Monroe County," he said.

Referring to AFL-CIO President George Meany, Burke again denied the NAM already has rejected "any peaceful overture" by Meany.

Burke's comments were made to reporters and in an appearance before a state legislative committee on industrial and labor relations.

Erroneous Impression
He said he wanted to correct "an erroneous impression which seems to have been created" concerning the purported rejection of a Meany offer.

He asserted that, as has been stated by other NAM officials, there had been no such proposal by Meany but that the NAM would be glad to receive a definite one from him.

Following Burke's appearance, the state AFL secretary-treasurer, Harold Hanover told the committee he believed a reply by Meany was warranted and that he believed Meany would be very happy to reply.

Admits Check Charge
LOS ANGELES, Dec. 14 (AP) — Actress Barbara Payton today pleaded guilty of writing and cashing a bad check for $18.50. Two other counts involving $111 in bad checks were dismissed.

Actress Has Baby
HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 14 (AP) — Actress Ann Blyth gave birth to a 7-pound 3-ounce girl named Maureen Ann McNulty today. The star and her husband, Dr. James McNulty, also have a son, Timothy Patrick, 1½.

Eisenhower Urges Americans To Observe Bill Of Rights Day By Renewing Devotion

GETTYSBURG, Pa., Dec. 14 (AP) — President Eisenhower started today the slow-down his doctors have prescribed. And there wasn't any yes or no as to whether he has called Gov. Averell Harriman of New York a "Park Avenue Truman."

One official presidential action on a light day was signing statements urging the American people to renew their devotion to "the most precious of liberties" guaranteed by the Bill of Rights and to "defend them against all forms of attack."

Strive For Peace
"Let us also highly resolve," Eisenhower said, "to continue to strive for a peaceful world in which all mankind will share them."

Bill of Rights Day will be observed tomorrow. It commemorates the adoption of the first 10 Amendments to the Constitution which set forth such rights as freedom of speech, press and religion, and the rights to privacy and fair trial.

There was nothing at all on the President's schedule today — no official callers or any social visitors. He couldn't even get in any putting practice because the golf green at his country estate was frozen out of commission.

"This," said press secretary James C. Hagerty, "is going to be a very quiet day."

Then for the next few minutes Hagerty was busy amiably parrying questions as to whether the chief executive has termed Gov. Harriman a "Park Avenue Truman."

Seal Sale Returns Exceed Year-Ago Figures; T-B Society President Confident Of Success

TWO-THIRDS of the $12,500 Monroe County Tuberculosis and Health Society campaign has been reached with returns of Christmas Seal letters counted yesterday.

Possibility of making the required $12,500 to cover purchase of a modern x-ray machine, which has been functioning several months for Monroe County, was labeled as "encouraging" by Horace G. Heller, president of the society.

3,256 Not Returned
The fact that 3,256 people have not yet made returns on Christmas Seals they received several weeks ago, "certainly sets up a sound potential for reaching the $12,500 budget so badly needed this year," the TB Society president said yesterday.

Another encouraging note pointed up by the society president is the $8,227.52 returns to date, just ahead of the $8,055.46 counted on the same date a year ago.

Christmas Goal Set
The total as of yesterday came from 4,461 letters, less returns than the 4,581 letters for the same date a year ago, Heller announced.

"If the 3,256 people who have not yet made returns, start promptly to make normal returns for the sheets of Christmas Seals they received, there's a very good possibility that the extensive plans for war on TB and work in public health fields planned by our society will be carried out," Mr. Heller said.

"There's also the possibility that prompt action by these 3,256 people on making generous returns will bring an end to the 1955 Christmas Seal campaign by Christmas a record that hasn't been achieved in many years," the society president said.

Outlawing Of Reds Provokes New Outbursts On Cyprus

NICOSIA, Cyprus, Dec. 14 (AP) — The British government's outlawing of the Communist party on Cyprus provoked a new wave of violence in this crown colony today. A British soldier was killed and five others were wounded.

Sporadic strikes swept the island in protest against the anti-Red order. Archbishop Makarios denounced the move against Cypriot Communists.

Objects To "Force"
The Archbishop, leader of the Enosis (union with Greece) movement, said:

"We unreservedly denounce the action of the British government, irrespective of the fundamental differences which separate us from those against whom the government action is aimed. We believe an ideology can be fought only by another and better ideology and not by force."

Enosis demands immediate self-determination for Cyprus, meaning freedom to become a part of Greece, but the British have promised only greater self-government and eventual self-determination without setting any date.

Stricken At Dinner
CHICAGO, Dec. 14 (AP) — President Louis Battle-Berres of Uruguay was stricken at a dinner in his honor tonight and officials reported he will be hospitalized "for a few days."

Spurned Youth Kills Three, Wounds Girl
VANDERGRIFT, Pa., Dec. 14 (AP) — A 17-year-old youth who went berserk because a 15-year-old girl spurned his love, shot and killed her parents and uncle tonight. Then, after wounding her, he fled.

The dead are J. Warren Smal, 49, a gas well driller, his wife, Mrs. Irene Smal, 36, and Smal's brother, William A. Smal, 47.

In serious condition at a nearby hospital with a wound of the right chest is Gladys Smal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Warren Smal. State Police Sgt. Joseph Young named the killer as John Fallone.

Wright Heads Security Commission

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14 (AP) — A bipartisan, 12-member commission organized today to undertake a study of how the nation can best safeguard itself against internal enemies and at the same time protect individual rights.

Lloyd Wright, a Los Angeles lawyer and immediate past president of the American Bar Assn., was elected unanimously as chairman of the commission. He told newsmen it faced "a terrific job."

Elected as vice president was Sen. Stennis (D-Miss.), one of the authors of a resolution adopted by Congress last summer establishing the commission.

Controversial Topic
Congress voted to set up the commission even though President Eisenhower had said he saw no need for such a study of the government's security program.

The program has been a continuing source of controversy particularly as it relates to "security risks" in government. Some members of Congress expressed hope that a bipartisan study would "remove it from politics."

The members of the commission were drawn equally from public and private life. They were appointed on Nov. 10 — four each by President Eisenhower, Vice President Nixon and Speaker of the House Rayburn.

Quoted By Leaders
Some of the GOP leaders in Congress reported that Eisenhower dismissed Harriman's slaps at administration policy as the product of a Park Avenue Truman.

Asked whether the President said that, Hagerty told a news conference:

"Well, I never repeat or report on meetings like that other than the official statements, I make, so I have no comment."

PP&L Defends Stand Against Rate Reduction

HARRISBURG, Dec. 14 (AP)—An executive of the Pennsylvania Power and Light Co. today termed "fantastic" the contentions of 23 industrial customers that PP&L rates should be lowered in line with federal tax deferrals.

"Therefore, our company believes it would unfairly advantage present customers, and unfairly penalize future customers, if the proposed temporary tax deferral—which in our opinion is a proper part of the cost of service—is laid on the backs of future customers," declared A. D. Root, PP&L financial vice president.

Root testified at the sixth round of Public Utility Commission hearings begun in April on a rate schedule that went into effect in February.

Postmaster Thanks Public For Heeding Mail-Early Plea

STROUDSBURG POSTMASTER Fred H. Rhodes last night expressed his thanks for the fine cooperation from residents and business firms to his "Mail Early for Christmas" pleas.

Rhodes also was grateful for the cooperation of patrons in using the "Local" and "Out-of-Town" labels which were mailed to all of them.

Urge Label Use
"Their cooperation in using the labels and in separating and tying their mail in bundles has definitely speeded up the handling of mail," the postmaster said.

He urged all who have not been using the labels to do so.

To take care of the last-minute rush, which always begins when incoming mail is the greatest, the Post Office will remain open from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m., including Saturday, Rhodes said.

He further disclosed that regular delivery schedules will be replaced by stepped-up service.

Barrett Plans Scrap Drive

SATURDAY morning the Barrett Branch YMCA is sponsoring a paper and scrap drive in the Barrett Township area. All persons having paper, magazines, metal or rags are asked to call the YMCA (Cresco 2730). The collection will start at 9 a.m. If the truck does not get to every home it means that a full load has been reached and the scrap will be held over until the next drive.

The profits of these drives will be added to the fund set up to build a basketball court in front of the YMCA.

Pro-Segregation Groups In South Blasted By Church Leader

Editor Terms Race Issue Paramount

BUCK HILL FALLS — All Protestant forces yesterday were called upon to stop the march toward "Nazism" by the so-called White Citizens Councils of the South.

A blistering attack on the pro-segregationist groups was made by Rev. Harold E. Fey, executive editor of The Christian Century, at the final session of the sixth annual assembly of the Division of Home Missions, National Council of Churches.

Following the talk, some 250 home missions leaders adopted a statement expressing their "unanimous judgment that the problem of racial segregation is the paramount issue now facing our churches and our society."

"Both the churches and the Government must recognize that the White Citizens Councils are an organized and coordinated force whose objective is to defy the law and to rule in place of the law," Dr. Fey contended.

65,000 Members

The editor said that in Mississippi alone there are more than 300 White Citizens groups with 65,000 members that are working "with the full collusion of Mississippi senators and other officials."

"They are displacing the lawful authority of the courts," he continued, "and are punishing people for registering to vote, for petitioning for redress of grievances and for the integration of schools."

Dr. Fey noted that the Nazis in Germany followed a similar pattern of first defying, then nullifying and overthrowing the authority of the courts. They then went on to displace other functions of government.

He claimed the pro-segregationists are beginning such a process in Mississippi, and called upon the churches to launch a three-point program to meet the "current racial crisis."

Points For Action

(1) They should act at once to support Southern preachers and their families who are victims of White Citizens Council pressure.

(2) They should send "missions of understanding and reconciliation" to Southern states. "We send such missions to Russia, why not Mississippi?" he asked.

(3) They should enlist the aid of women's organizations which he termed "the only potent, untamed forces left in the churches."

The speaker praised the action of the National Council of Churches in its decision to give cash and other aid to ministers who are being made to suffer for their support of the Supreme Court ruling on segregation in the schools.

He urged that additional funds be supplied for the support of the National Council's Department of Racial and Cultural Relations "which is bearing the brunt of the situation."

The National Council decision came at the Dec. 1 meeting of its governing General Board in Omaha. The action called for hiring of additional staff members for the Race Relations Department in addition to authorizing the organization to give direct cash and other aid to Southern ministers "who are virtual political refugees."

Reports On Councils

The board acted after hearing an extensive report on the activities of the White Citizens Councils presented by Rev. J. Oscar Lee, executive director of the Race Relations Department.

In his report, Dr. Lee cited cases of five Southern preachers who had been ousted from their pulpits and forced to give up their ministries because of their stand in support of the Supreme Court school decision.

In addition to recognizing racial segregation at the prime social and religious issue today, the assembly recommended that race relations be the basis of the theme of the next triennial general assembly of the National Council of Churches in 1957.

Before adjourning, the assembly also approved a resolution calling upon the Federal Government to conduct a census of the religious affiliations of its people in 1956.

SOME $1,500 DAMAGE was caused to this 1955 sedan in which George H. Costenbader, 68, Minisink Hills, was injured last night. State Police said the car went off the road on Route 90 between Stroudsburg and Bangor and struck a tree. (Staff Photo by MacLeod)

Costenbader Hurt As Car Hits Tree

GEORGE H. Costenbader, 68, retired deputy collector of Internal Revenue for Monroe County, was injured last night when his car went off the road and struck a tree on Bangor Mountain.

State Police said Costenbader's 1955 sedan was virtually demolished when it went out of control on Route 90 at Sal's Crotch about 6 p.m.

Costenbader, a resident of Minisink Hills, was alone at the time, State Police said. The extent of his injuries was not immediately learned. Damage to the car was set at $1,500. It was later towed away by B. E. Weber, East Stroudsburg.

Pfc. Peter Walsh and Pfc. Evan Chaplin investigated the case.

DETROIT, Dec. 14 — American Motors (Nash-Hudson) will produce its own V-8 engine, it was disclosed today as part of the company's 1956 planning.

Munson Praises Students, Denies Condemning Them

LAST WEEK, Alfred Munson, Stroudsburg High School principal, asked boys in the school to do away with their old blue jeans and wear other trousers to school.

This week it became apparent that reaction to the announcement was basically favorable. But there was one minor point, Munson said, that needed to be cleared up.

Monday he made a brief talk before high school students in the assembly. In brief, it said:

Since news stories about Munson's request for abolition of jeans had appeared the principal had had scores of phone calls. All but one of these had favored his action. One call had come from as far away as Allentown.

Mistaken Impression

Most people seemed to feel that any effort to improve the overall appearance of students—and, at the same time, the school itself since the students speak for the school—was good.

Some persons had got the mistaken impression that the principal was condemning the kids themselves. And nothing could be further from the truth, the principal told the students.

"I think you are as fine a group of students as we have had here at any time in the past. When I ask you to dress differently—specifically, to stop wearing blue jeans and wear other clean, inexpensive clothing—I am in no way casting a reflection on you as children or young men. I am interested only in raising the standard of our school," Munson said. "We are not condemning you in any way and we do not want anyone to think that."

Such surveys were made at 10 year intervals, beginning in 1890. However, none has been made since 1936.

The National Council, meanwhile, is conducting its own county-to-county study to determine the religious affiliations of Americans of the major faiths.

In his report, Dr. Lee cited cases of five Southern preachers who had been ousted from their pulpits and forced to give up their ministries because of their stand in support of the Supreme Court school decision.

In addition to recognizing racial segregation at the prime social and religious issue today, the assembly recommended that race relations be the basis of the theme of the next triennial general assembly of the National Council of Churches in 1957.

Before adjourning, the assembly also approved a resolution calling upon the Federal Government to conduct a census of the religious affiliations of its people in 1956.

Farm Owners Reminded Of Pension Tax

FARMER EMPLOYERS are reminded that Social Security taxes apply to cash wages paid to every farm worker to whom the employer paid $100 or more in cash wages during the year 1955.

Social Security taxes are imposed on both employers and employees. The employer and employee tax are each 2 percent of taxable wages paid. The employer must withhold 2 percent from the employee's wages. Payment of the 2 percent withheld, together with the employer's 2 percent tax, must be made by the employer.

District Director F. P. Graham, Scranton, said that every farm employer who owes these taxes must file a return on Form 943 and pay the taxes on or before Jan. 31, 1956.

Farm employers are urged to make timely returns and payments to avoid penalties and interest which may be imposed for late filing or failure to file.

The required registration Form SS-4 can be obtained from the district director or the nearest office of the Social Security Administration.

Farm employers in doubt as to their social security obligations should obtain circular A, which explains the requirements with respect to withholding of social security taxes from farm employees' wages.

Sampling Of Milk Products Tightened After Six New Cases Of Paratyphoid Are Reported

LANCASTER, Pa., Dec. 14 (AP)—City officials today started a study of methods to tighten the sampling of milk products as six new cases of paratyphoid fever were reported. The new cases increased to 172 the number stricken with the disease since the first outbreak 10 days ago. Health officials also disclosed that three cases of the disease reported in Wilmington, Del.,

were children who had been in Lancaster and consumed milk believed to have carried the disease. The study was agreed on last night by the board of health. It was decided to try to reduce the amount of time needed to check products, which show a higher than standard bacteria count in tests. The board also decided to probe the possibility of conducting such tests twice a month rather than once a month as is the practice now.

Gaitskell Elected By Laborites

By Tom Ochiltree
LONDON, Dec. 14 (AP)—Hugh Gaitskell, a moderate Socialist with pro-American views, tonight won the leadership of Britain's Labor party. He thus became chief of opposition to the Eden Conservative party government and top candidate for prime minister in any future Labor government.

Labor members of Parliament, voting on a party successor to ex-Prime Minister Clement Attlee, gave the fast-rising 49-year-old Gaitskell a clear majority. He received 157 of 267 ballots cast in a three-way race.

The Laborites rejected Aneurin Bevan, left-wing leader often critical of American foreign policy, and Herbert Morrison, faithful party wheelhorse who had served as Attlee's deputy for a decade. Bevan received 70 votes and Morrison only 40.

Both Too Old

Morrison, at 67, and Bevan at 58, probably are too old now to have much chance to gain their party's top prize. Morrison heartbroken and in tears, resigned as deputy leader.

Attlee served as leader for 20 years before he stepped down seven days ago and accepted an earldom. Gaitskell, the party's recognized intellectual and a former chancellor of the exchequer, was expected to have a long run in the post.

The party confirms its leader in the office every autumn at the opening of a new session of Parliament, but this is a formality unless there has been a shattering upheaval within the ranks.

Gaitskell is firmly in the saddle with the backing of the big trades union leaders—the people with great power in the party's national organization. The vote revealed he had the solid support of the party's moderate element in the House of Commons.

Attlee Silent

Morrison, also a moderate, won backing only from old party veterans who thought he should have the top spot for a few years as a token of appreciation for a lifetime in the Labor cause. The left-wingers as expected, backed Bevan, the Welsh orator and party problem child.

Attlee remained mum about the election. His wife, at their country home near Great Missenden, said he had no comment.

Jubilant in victory, Gaitskell paid tribute to Attlee and Morrison for their long years of service to the party.

House Proposes New Motor Code

HARRISBURG, Dec. 14 (AP)—The Joint State Government Commission will undertake revision of the motor vehicle code under a resolution adopted unanimously by the House today.

The bipartisan resolution asks the commission to report its findings and recommendations to the next session of the General Assembly. Sponsors are Robert Wheeler (D-Fayette) and Baker Royer (R-Lancaster).

Although the code has not been revised since 1929 more than 100 amendments have been enacted over the years, the proposal notes.

Pocono Grange To Hold Party

STROUDSBURG High displayed "come from behind" ability in taking the measure of Carbondale's Benjamin Franklin High School in Tuesday's basketball game, 63-55. It marked the second victory in three outings for the Mountaineers, who lost to East Stroudsburg on opening day and then came on to beat both Bangor and Carbondale. Doug Shook and Tom Savidge, the home team's two big men, took over control of the backboards in the second half and the Mountaineers drove to an important victory.

The Mountaineers have been showing a marked improvement in game since the present campaign got underway. Against East Stroudsburg the pupils of Coach John Kupiec lost the ball 33 times for one reason or another. Against Bangor Stroudsburg lost possession of the ball 21 times and against Carbondale lost the ball 16 times. In one week the Mountaineers have shown strong development, although they are still guilty of playing too much careless basketball.

Stroudsburg tried for 20 field goals against Carbondale and made good on 23 shots. The Kupiecers made good on 18 of 31 foul shots and captured 43 rebounds. Stroudsburg, with Shook and Savidge doing most of the work, picked off 15 offensive and 30 defensive rebounds. Shook captured 15 rebounds himself, 11 defensive and four offensive, while Savidge grabbed 11, eight defensive and three offensive.

Shook and Savidge played their best ball of the infant season against Carbondale. Their second half work was definitely the difference between victory and defeat. Shook's shots from the crowded area directly under the basket and Savidge's one-handed shot from side court broke Carbondale's back. The most important factor in Stroudsburg's most recent victory is the fact that the home team never quit, even though it was 12 points off the race at one time in the third quarter.

Stroudsburg is improving with each game, but the Mountaineers still appear anxious to take wild shots and pass up good passing opportunities. The home team was taking wild heaves at the basket in the late stages of the fourth quarter on Tuesday. The Mountaineers played as if they were trailing instead of leading by seven points. Stroudsburg could become real tough if it settles down and plays according to Kupiec's plan, rather than in a wild race horse manner.

By-liners American Legion and Gray's Chevrolet played an exhibition basketball game at Beaverdam High on Monday night of this week. This certainly isn't a startling statement, but the result of the game can be fitted into the startling cat-gory. Both teams claimed victory following the final whistle. How did that come about? It may sound impossible, but the two scorers had different results.

There was no official scorebook kept and each team was satisfied to let the game ride on the strength of a "running score." But, when a final count was made it was found that the score ran in two directions. Of course, the game didn't mean anything and the result shouldn't provoke too much comment, but it should serve as a warning to both teams. No basketball game should be played without an official scorebook and without a clock and scoreboard hanging on the wall. Could be that both teams might claim victory in case of a mixup.

Coolbaugh's one-point surprise victory over Barrett in the Monroe County League on Tuesday was just another game in a thrilling series between these two basketball rivals. They have featured one-point decisions in at least one contest for the past five years. Coolbaugh coach, Don Wismer, didn't expect to do a thing this season, but opened with one of his biggest victories in history. Coolbaugh is in the midst of a rebuilding program. It is quite possible that Pocono's 83-42 victory over Tobyhanna Township on Tuesday is a school record for points scored in a single game for the winner.

It might be good at this time to point out that the home team coach is responsible for the action of his team's fans before, during and after a game, according to the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association. No spectator is allowed in the officials' dressing room at any time and the official is in no way to be molested by spectators. Infractions of this rule could bring serious trouble to the coach and spectators. Who was the former scholastic eager who tried to shoot a Tootsie Roll out of a rifle the other day instead of a bullet?

Trenton Tops ESSTC Despite McLaughlin's 53 Points

Former Catty Star Sets Two Records

TRENTON — Kelly McLaughlin scored 53 points and set two records here yesterday afternoon, but the East Stroudsburg State Teachers College center's output wasn't quite enough to save his mates from a 98-97 overtime defeat at the hands of Trenton Teachers.

McLaughlin bettered the previous ESSTC record of 42 points set by Pete Pasko back in the 1944-1945 campaign and also improved upon the floor record of 49 at Trenton.

ESSTC, as it has in all of its starts this season, was forced to rally from far behind last night to gain a 91-91 deadlock at the end of a regulation play, only to bow by a 7-6 margin in the extra period.

McLaughlin tried desperately to save the day for the Warriors as he scored 36 of his 53 points in the overtime session. Kelly missed a chance to save the day for the Warriors when he converted only one of four foul shots in the fading moments of the overtime period.

The six-foot, four-inch ESSTC center, rammed home 24 field goals and found the range on five of 12 charity tosses.

Former Pup

Adding insult to injury, Trenton used Roger Allgor, a former player under Coach Jerry Palaia, present ESSTC mentor, at Neptune High, to turn the tide of battle. Allgor dropped a field goal into the nets with 10 seconds of the regulation game remaining to give Trenton a 91-89 lead, but Palmerston's Hal Mihalik drove home a double-dunk with only two seconds left to even the count at 91-91.

McLaughlin's three points, two foul shots by Steve Oliveri and a singleton by Mihalik failed to match Ed Sutterley's field goal, Allgor's four points and Tom Smith's foul shot during the extra period.

ESSTC got off to a slow start trailing 22-15 at the end of the first period and 41-34 at halftime, as a last second field goal by Mihalik cut ESSTC's deficit to seven points at the halfway mark. The Warriors dominated the third round, 26-22, and came roaring from behind to tie the count at 91-91 with a 31-28 edge during the last period.

Short Lead

ESSTC actually vaulted into a 83-80 lead in the early portion of the fourth period, but the visiting team lost Walt "Moose" Blorn on the court. It was the second overtime victory in as many outings for Trenton.

Trenton scored what proved to be the winning point with one minute and five seconds still remaining in the overtime struggle, but ESSTC couldn't work its height advantage into scoring position. Trenton held a 38-37 advantage in field goals and made good on 22 of 36 foul shots. ESSTC converted 23 of 42 charity tosses.

Sutterley was the big gun for Trenton with 35 points, while four other members of the home team tallied in double figures. Mihalik, with 16 points, and Wilmont Smith, with 10 tallies, were the only other Warriors in double figures.

ESSTC had defeated West Chester and lost to Millersville prior to yesterday's contest. The Warriors gained a measure of revenge when Ted Roscher paced the Normal Hill junior varsity to a convincing 61-41 verdict over the Trenton yearlings. Roscher finished the game with 14 points.

Kelly McLaughlin

McLaughlin Surprised At Record Status

KELLY MCLAUGHLIN gave East Stroudsburg State Teachers College something to smile about yesterday, even though the Warriors dropped a 98-97 verdict to Trenton Teachers on the latter's home court.

"I never scored more than 37 points in a game before," the former Catawauqua High star stated last night. The 37 points came while playing with Catty during the 1946-1947 season, but the 25-year old eager couldn't remember the opposition in that game. The six-foot, four inch, 195-pound center, is able to practice only twice a week because of a job he holds off campus. McLaughlin is married and has one child. He lives in Fullerton, two miles outside of Allentown.

Old Mark

Yesterday's performance of 53 points, on 24 field goals and five foul shots, bettered the previous high of 42 tallies set by Pete Pasko during the 1944-1945 season against Bloomsburg. Pasko's output was as much as scored by the entire Bloomsburg team in that game.

Kelly's 53-point performance also set a record for the Trenton floor. The previous high was 49. McLaughlin led Catty to the final round of the District 11 playoffs in March of 1947, but Allentown gained a thrilling 37-36 verdict at the Penn Palestra, in Philadelphia. Allentown later had to give up the title because of using ineligible players.

"He was outstanding," is the way Coach Jerry Palaia sized up the situation. "I'm disappointed that we didn't win, but Kelly was marvelous on offense and defense," the popular coach continued.

"I didn't know how many points I had until the Trenton coach and players informed me that I had set a record," McLaughlin stated.

"I would gladly trade all the points if we could have the game in the win column," McLaughlin remarked as he adjourned to his room in the Monroe Dormitory.

Celtics Defeat Knicks, 102-100

BOSTON, Dec. 14 (AP)—Easy Ed Macauley's one hand push shot from 12 feet out with six seconds remaining enabled the Boston Celtics to edge the New York Knickerbockers, 102-100, tonight in the nightcap of a National Basketball Association doubleheader. The Minneapolis Lakers led all the way to defeat the Fort Wayne Pistons, 98-85, in the opener of the Boston Garden twinbill.

Mack Returns To Hospital

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 14 (AP)—Connie Mack, who will be 93 years old next week, is re-entering Presbyterian Hospital for a checkup of the broken hip he suffered in a fall last October 1.

Players Refuse Owner Rulings

By Joe Reichler

NEW YORK, Dec. 14 (AP)—The major league player representatives, in an unprecedented action, refused point blank today to accept the club owners' rejection of certain proposals submitted to the magnates at their annual winter meeting in Chicago last week.

At a meeting of the representatives of the 16 big league clubs with their attorney, J. Norman Lewis, the players decided to re-submit two specific proposals for consideration by the owners at their scheduled meeting next Feb. 4. They appointed Robin Roberts and Bob Feller, the two league representatives, together with Lewis, to meet with Commissioner Ford Frick tomorrow to further discuss their grievances.

Softball Loop To Lower Entry Fee

ENTRANCE FEE for next season was lowered from $75 to $50 at last night's meeting of the Monroe County Softball League at the Thomas P. Lambert Veterans of Foreign Wars Post.

Joe Whalen, league president, announced following the meeting that all potential managers and sponsors will be contacted prior to the next meeting, listed for Wednesday, January 11.

Dick "Dipe" Lessig and Bob "Booter" Miller were named to the Grounds Committee, while Bruce Possinger, vice president of the league, and Bill Weber were selected on the Program Committee. The latter two will be in charge of preparing the state tournament program next August.

Appointment

Charley Berger was appointed Financial Secretary of the league at last night's gathering. His duties will concern direction of fund raising ventures.

The next meeting, also to be held at the VFW home, will highlight a detailed report on what is expected for next Summer's tournament.

A vote on whether the league should continue its insurance policy or make it a team matter, will also be discussed at next month's meeting.

All meetings in the future will be held on the second Wednesday of each month and will get underway at 8:30 p.m.

Commission May Act

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 14 (AP)—Alfred M. Klein, state athletic commissioner, intimated today that the Boxing Managers' Guild of Pennsylvania may be investigated as was the New York guild.

Klein said that Commission Chairman James Crowley had written to New York Commissioner Julius Heifand and requested a copy of all the testimony in the New York investigation. The guild has been banned in New York.

Hearing

Meanwhile, fight promoter Herman Taylor and his publicity assistant, Archie Pirolli, turned up for a hearing before the commission today and were granted a continuance until sometime in January.

Taylor and Pirolli are charged with taking a fighter from his rightful manager by coercion and threat to the fighter's future career. Taylor denies he ever owned an interest in a fighter or managed one during his promoting career. Taylor is charged also with "associating with bookmakers, gamblers or persons of similar ill repute." Pirolli is charged with filing a false contract with the commission.

The prize list will be distributed on the basis of one prize for each five entrants. Entry blanks are now available from all league secretaries and all members of the Monroe County Bowling Association.

Glick Receives New Offer

FORT COLLINS, Colo., Dec. 14 (AP)—Gary Glick, 25, star halfback at Colorado A&M, has been offered $12,000 to play professional football next season with the Toronto Argonauts of the Eastern Canadian League.

Glick's wife, Coleen, confirmed the offer today and said she and her husband will fly to Toronto tomorrow "to look the situation over."

Glick was tied up with examinations and could not be reached for comment.

Statement

In Pittsburgh, a spokesman for the Steelers said:

"This situation boils down to this: The Toronto team wants to talk to him, he gets a nice trip, and he'll listen to their proposition. But Fran Fogarty (Steelers' general manager) will talk to him in Denver enroute to the draft meeting at Los Angeles next month."

Kluszewski Wins Fifth Fielding Title

NEW YORK, Dec. 14 (AP)—Cincinnati's Ted Kluszewski, better known for his batting than for his defensive play, led the National League first basemen in fielding for the fifth straight season in 1955 to set a major league record.

Kluszewski's feat highlighted the release of the official fielding averages today.

The muscular Redleg made only 8 errors while handling 1,482 chances for a .995 mark. He still has a long way to go, however, to tie the "most years, leading" record of 9 held by Charley Grimm.

Willie Jones of Philadelphia and Al (Red) Schoendienst of St. Louis shared honors with Kluszewski.

Third Year
Jones topped the third basemen defensively for the third year in a row, committing 18 errors in 456 chances for a .960 average.

Schoendienst, in setting the pace for second basemen for the fourth season, wound up with .985 mark, resulting from only 10 miscues in 687 chances.

Ernie Banks and Eddie Meksis of the Chicago Cubs also made the "all fielding" team. Banks led the shortstops with .972. Meksis, a converted infielder, paced the outfielders with .991.

Veteran catcher Andy Seminick of Philadelphia headed his position with .994 and Art Fowler of the Redlegs was the best fielder among pitchers, handling 42 chances perfectly for a 1.000 percentage.

The Phillies made off with club honors, finishing with the highest average, .981 and the fewest errors, 110. Last-place Pittsburgh was first in double plays with 175.

Hebert Shows Form In Special Match

SANFORD, Fla., Dec. 14 (AP)—Lionel Hebert, young professional from Erie, Pa., and Don Bisplinghoff, Florida State Amateur champion, shot five under par 65s today to pace the field in pro-am preliminaries of the $15,000 Sanford Open golf tournament which starts tomorrow.

There was a four-way tie at 66 for third place among Sam Snead, winner of last week's Miami Open, Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Mike Dietz of Lake Orion, Mich., and Buddy Weaver of Houston, Tex.

Hebert, whose older brother Jay also is a touring professional, picked up the top check of $500. The four pros tied at 66 got $325 each.

Pro-Am
In the pro-am competition, three teams tied for first with best ball scores of 62 over the 6,205-yard, par 36-34-79 Mayfair Inn Country Club course.

The low teams were Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., and Dr. Joe Hundley of Orlando; John Weitzel of Hershey, Pa., and Dex Daniels of Winter Haven, Fla.; and Tommy Bolt of Chattanooga, Tenn., and Joe Sommers of Detroit.

Hebert and his amateur partner, J. W. Kline of Orlando had a best ball 64 as did Bisplinghoff, of Orlando, and pro Mike Fetchick of Mahopac, N.Y.

The tournament proper entries include Mike Souchak, Grossinger's, N.Y.

Turner Gains Split Nod

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Dec. 14 (AP)—Veteran Gil Turner called on his hard-earned ring savvy and windmill style tonight to wear down durable Jackie Labaua and win a split decision in a 10-round middleweight fight. Turner weighed 154½, Labaua 159.

Turner carried the fight to Labaua most of the way to cut short the younger boy's hopes of making a sudden spurt into the middleweight rankings. The Philadelphia Negro, however, appeared unable to hurt Labaua with his quick combinations and hard rights.

Cut Eye
Turner suffered an eye cut in the sixth round but managed to protect it thereafter from Labaua's frequent and previously effective flicking left jabs.

It was most a case of time-tried experience over inexperience as Turner managed to come off with the best piece of the many long slugfests.

Judge Ted Shields called it 5-4-1 in favor of Turner; Judge Dick Albino had it 6-3-1 for Turner and Referee Joe Palmer called it a draw. The Associated Press card favored Turner 6-2-2.

Only 1,300 fans turned out for the nationally televised scrap in a light snowstorm. They paid $3,035.

Yankees Sign Young Pitcher

NEW YORK, Dec. 14 (AP)—The New York Yankees today announced the signing of a righthanded pitcher, Jim Pignatello, 19, of Montclair, N.J., to a major league contract for an estimated $4,000.

Pignatello originally was signed by the Baltimore Orioles last summer, but his contract was nullified by baseball Commissioner Ford Frick and he was declared a free agent.

Score Selected As Top Rookie

NEW YORK, Dec. 14 (AP)—Birdie Tebbetts is a National League now but in 1952 he was a member of the Cleveland Indians, serving out a 16-year career as a big league catcher. That's when he first met Herb Score, the young fireballer named today as the American League Rookie of the Year for 1955.

"I'll never forget that day either," the present manager of the Cincinnati Redlegs recalled recently. "It was during batting practice before a night game in June and Al Lopez, the manager, brought this skinny, long-legged kid over and said to me: 'Grab a mitt, Birdie, and catch this kid for a while, will you?'"

"So I guided this boy over to the sidelines near the Indians' dug-out, took my position in back of a makeshift home plate, and casually held out the mitt. The kid wound up and—zoom! I never even saw that first pitch. Lucky for me it was two feet over my head or I wouldn't be here to tell you about it."

Throws Bullets
"Now I was prepared but it didn't do me much good. It was purely instinct that kept me from being maimed. The balls bounced in front of me, behind me, shot over my head, to the left and to the right of me. But every one was a bullet. The few he did get over almost tore the glove right off my hand. I was 41 years old then, and I said to myself, 'Birdie, if you value your life, you'd better get out of here.'"

The Indians signed Score, 19, the next day and gave him a bonus of $60,000. The young southpaw was sent to Indianapolis where he got into a dozen games. He fanned 61 batters in 62 innings but he was wild as a young steer. He issued 62 passes and wound up the season with a 2-5 won-lost record.

Strikeouts
Score was dropped a couple of notches to Reading, Pa., of the Eastern League in 1953 and earned a return to Indianapolis by winning seven of 10 decisions. He was a sensation in 1954, winning 22 while losing five and striking out 330 batters to set an American Assn. mark. His exploits earned him the most valuable player award.

home in Lake Worth, Fla., continued his spectacular strikeout success last season with Cleveland, fanning 245 to set a record for first year pitchers. The 6-2, 185-pound fastballer, who also owns one of the best curve balls in the business, won 16 games while losing 10 and ranked fourth in earned run percentage with 2.85.

The 24-man committee of baseball writers who participated in the voting named him the top freshman on 18 ballots. Billy Klaus, the peppery shortstop, who played such a vital role in the Boston Red Sox' rise from seventh in May to a final fourth place finish, got five nominations. The other vote went to Norm Zauchin, a teammate of Klaus'. The big first baseman hit only .239, but slammed 27 home runs, including three in one game on May 27, to account for 10 runs batted in.

Little League Negotiations Continuing

LEWISBURG, Pa., Dec. 14 (AP)—Attorneys for Little League Baseball, Inc., and Carl E. Stotz, former commissioner, said today that negotiations for settlement of their dispute were continuing and would be renewed in Williamsport within a few days.

The attorneys, S. Dale Furst, for Little League, and Daniel F. Knitely for Stotz, issued the statement after a conference with U.S. District Judge Frederick V. Follmer. They said the statement was prompted by reports that negotiations between the two had broken down.

Law Suit
The litigation involves a $300,000 suit by Stotz against Little League in the Licking County Court and a countersuit by Little League against Stotz in federal court restraining him from promoting another baseball organization for boys.

Judge Follmer held up further action in the federal court case when both sides agreed to private negotiations in an effort to reach an agreement.

Time
He was clocked in 8 minutes, 47.4 seconds to better Australian Dave Stephens' national record by 1.6 seconds. His time, however, was 14 seconds slower than his own world record.

Douglas Quits Pro Cards

CHICAGO, Dec. 14 (AP)—Otis Douglas has resigned as an assistant coach of the Chicago Cardinals and another assistant is unlikely to have his contract renewed for next season.

This became known today as head coach Ray Flaherty denied any ill will existed on his staff or that Douglas and the other assistant, Tommy Thompson, were to be released as rumored.

New Job
The Cardinal managing director, Walter Wolfner, said Douglas—whose contract expires Dec. 31—was informed the club he was quitting to consider a head coaching job with an unidentified eastern college.

Nashua Bids Open Today

NEW YORK, Dec. 14 (AP)—The fate of Nashua, and whether the big 3-year-old champion and 1955 No. 1 American horse will ever race again, is expected to be cleared up tomorrow when the famous Belair stud racing stable is dissolved.

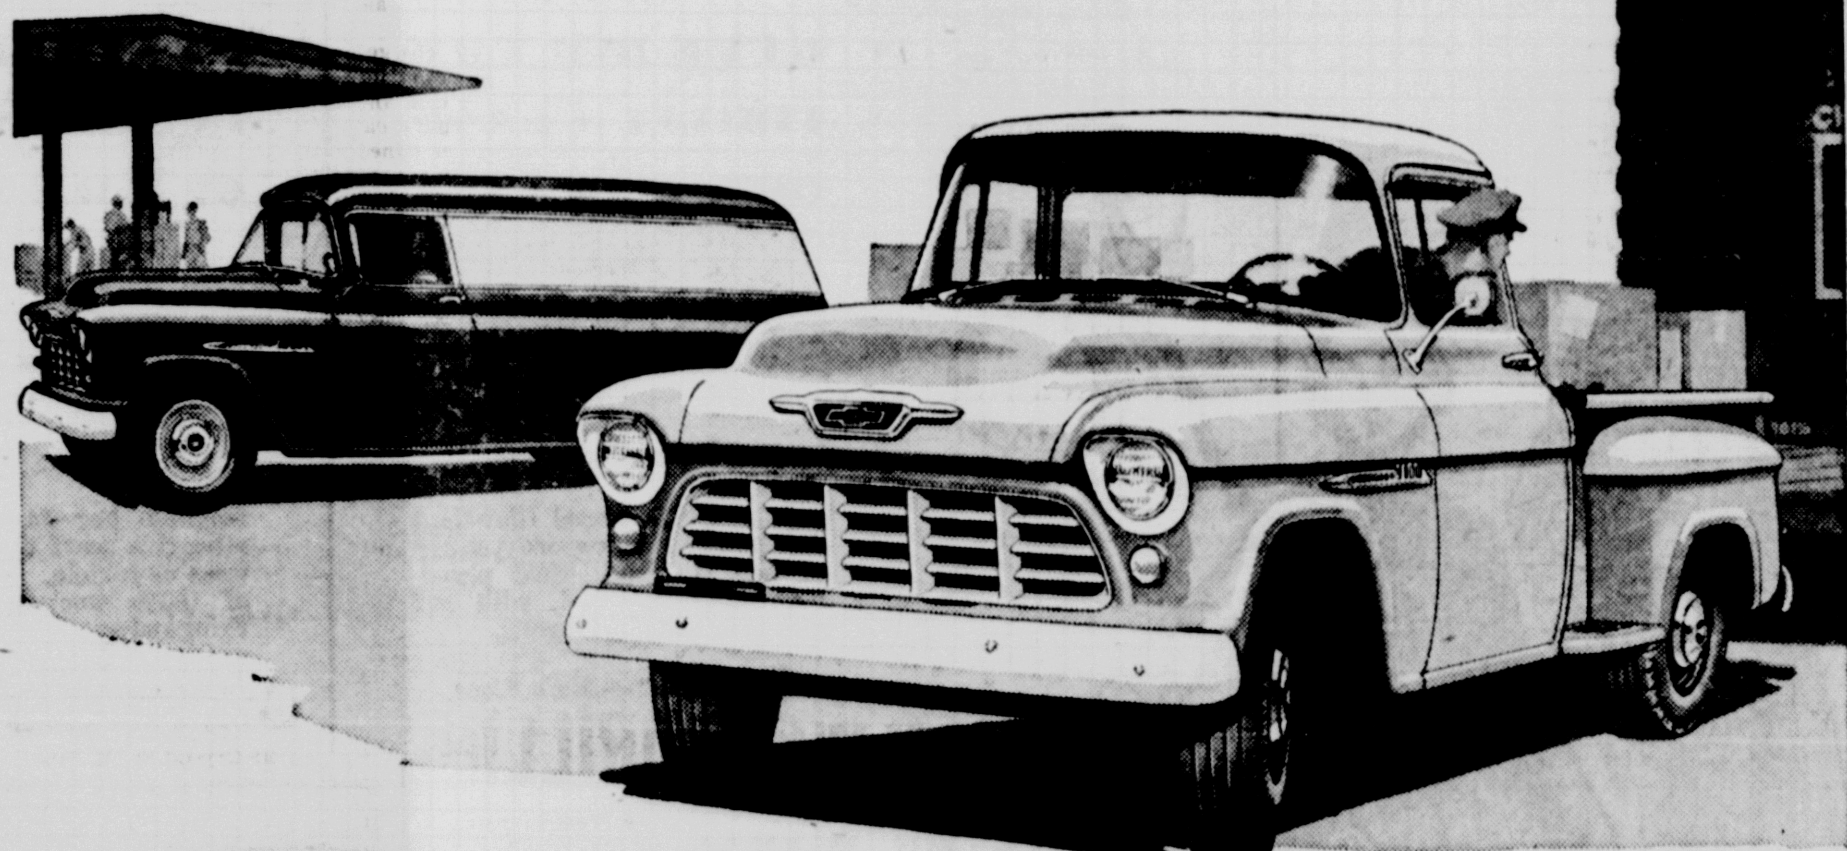

Sealed bids for Nashua and 61 other horses from the late William Woodward Jr.'s Belair stud are to be opened then in Wall St.

Authority
It is all up to the Hanover bank and John W. Ludewig, executors of the estate, whether to accept bids for Nashua and the rest of the racing and breeding stable. Ludewig served for many years as secretary to William Woodward Sr., founder of the stable 45 years ago, and then for the younger Woodward upon the death of his father in 1953. Young Woodward, 35, died of accidental gunshot wounds inflicted by his wife Oct. 30.

Nashua is insured for $750,000.

Out Of Service

NEW YORK, Dec. 14 (AP) — The Navy and Marine Corps training ship Prairie State, a Manhattan landmark since 1924, is to be taken out of service on Dec. 31. The 54-year-old vessel once was a battleship that toured the world in President Theodore Roosevelt's "great white fleet" in 1907.

Move To Oust Chiang From U. N. Indicated; Would Hurt U. S.

By William L. Ryan
AP Foreign News Analyst
The fight over membership in the United Nations is likely to lead to a strong campaign to oust Nationalist China. If it succeeds, American prestige and world leadership will have been dealt severe blows.

This is true despite the passage by the Security Council of a package deal approving membership in the U. N. for 16 nations of the 18 in the deal which failed Tuesday as a result of Nationalist Chinese and Soviet vetoes.

The campaign could take shape if there is a session of the General Assembly in the spring. At any rate, India's V. K. Krishna Menon, who can scarcely be considered a friend of the United States, is reported sparking a move to oust the Formosa delegation once and for all. Such a drive would find support among the Asian-African nations and probably help along the Soviet propaganda drive in Asia. The United States is identified in the United Nations with the Chiang Kai-shek regime, and the membership situation may push Washington along toward a position of isolation in its support of Chiang. Thus, Chiang's decision to veto the membership application of Outer Mongolia may have turned up earth for the grave of Nationalist ambitions.

Once the question had progressed as far as a vote on the 18-applicant package deal, the merits of the Mongolian People's Republic, an out-and-out Soviet satellite, were beside the point. The United States already had modified its position on the application and had decided to abstain in the voting.

Thus, many will attach the blame primarily to the Chiang regime, and new fuel will be added to the propaganda fire being built under the Formosa government. At present the most active arenas of the cold war are in Asia and the Middle East. There is much to be gained or lost in those areas in the next year. Another Asian-African conference like the one in Indonesia last spring is likely to take place in the middle of 1956. It is in the Middle East and Asia that Tuesday's rejection of the package deal is likely to arouse most resentment. Many Asians already deny the right of the Chiang government to be represented at all in the United Nations.

There may also be a considerable amount of resentment in Latin America, whose republics have supported Nationalist China. The development thus poses yet another challenge to the world leadership of the United States.

Funds Given To Firemen At Water Gap

DELAWARE WATER GAP—Three contributions totaling $2,685 were reported to the Chemical Hose Co. at its meeting this week.

Borough Council has appropriated $2,500 to the fire company toward the purchase of hose for the new LaFrance truck. Pardee Place donated $95, it was reported, and an anonymous donor gave $90.

Russell Shellenberger presided at the meeting. Reports were given by Fire Chief Fred Decker, Lewis, Ace, secretary, and William Fisher, treasurer. The matter of purchasing portable auxiliary lighting equipment was tabled.

Truck Reconditioning
President Shellenberger appointed H. J. LaBar, Charles Dutt, Layton Hauser, M. E. Leffler and Phil Farber to investigate the advisability of reconditioning and repainting the old fire truck. The company now has four trucks, and the firemen wish to keep all in operation. They expect to recondition the old truck after New Year's Day.

The committee was authorized to purchase 300 feet of 2½-inch hose to supplement that on the trucks.

Jaywalker Fined For Denting Car
CLEVELAND, Dec. 14 (AP)—A pedestrian, who ran into a car and dented it, was fined $15 for jaywalking today.

Traffic judge Louis Petrasch imposed the fine on Arthur Hrovat, a stocky 18-year-old. He also was ordered to pay a $27.65 repair bill on the car of Henry Warner of Cleveland.

Hrovat, a former high school football player, said he dashed across the street and bumped into the auto. He was not hurt.

Warn Speculators

BUENOS AIRES, Dec. 14 (AP)—The provisional government, seeking to keep Argentina's economy stable, has warned business speculators they will be dealt with harshly if they raise prices too much. Authorities announced such activity will be considered a violation of the state of siege in force since the September revolution overthrew Juan D. Peron.

Mail Order Catalogues From America Prove Strong Weapon Against Communism In Berlin

By Arthur Edson
WASHINGTON, Dec. 14 (AP)—A group of businessmen reported today they have found a powerful weapon for combatting Communist propaganda. It's the U. S. mail order catalogue.

"In Berlin," Wage G. McCargo of Richmond, Va., said, "we had to chain the catalogues to the table."
"The Germans crowded around the tables three or four deep," Kenneth Campbell of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, said. "We figured that 25 per cent of all visitors were from Communist-controlled Berlin. Well, they'd sit there, looking at those catalogues, and drool."

Variety of U. S. Life

The businessmen were in town to receive certificates from Secretary of Commerce Weeks for their service on trade missions that visited from Stockholm to Karachi. While here, they held a news conference to explain how they made out at (a) telling the American story abroad, and (b) helping foreign business men find markets in this country.

Nothing helped more at showing the variety of U. S. life, they agreed, than the humble mail order catalogue put on display at trade fairs.

"It was more popular abroad,"

Campbell said, "than on the average farm here."
The U. S. economy, and how it works, apparently has the foreign businessmen baffled.

Experience in Karachi

Owen Carlton, a Cleveland banker who went to Karachi, gave this example:

"They asked us, 'What are you going to buy from us?' We said, 'What have you got to sell?' Well, they hadn't thought that far."

Even more troubling to Carlton was their carefree view of money.

"They would ask, 'When is private capital coming to Pakistan?' They seemed to have the idea we would walk in, put the money on the table and let them help themselves. I had to convince them they first had to have a program that would appeal to investors."

J. Joseph Cranmore, sales manager for a New York foundry, said the Swedes probably understand us as well as anyone.

"Yet even some of them think everything sells itself," Cranmore said. "You push a button, and that's it."

Soup Too Sweet

"A fellow came to me with an idea of selling hip soup here. (It's made out of what's left of a rose when the petals drop off; I finally found that out.) I tasted it and told him honestly I didn't think it would go over. Too sweet. It was almost nauseous. The fellow said, 'I do a good job in Sweden, why not in America?'"

"I told him to try importers who sell in Swedish neighborhoods here."

Yet with all the difficulties, the U. S. shows were popular, and the businessmen were all for keeping the program going.

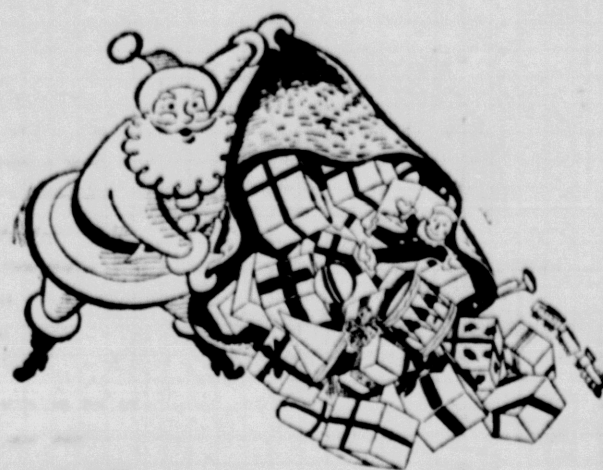

Should Drop Catalogues

Samuel P. Hull, sales manager of a Worcester, Mass., stamped metal company, said of Italian businessmen: "They were convinced businessmen can do a better job of diplomacy than the striped pants boys."

The other businessmen applauded this sentiment, and G. L. Thrall of Philadelphia added a final touch.

"We should keep going back," he said, "dropping catalogues as we go."

THE PRESBYTERIAN Sunday School presents its Christmas pageant Sunday, Dec. 18, at 5 p.m. in the church. Those who attend are requested to bring a donation of unperishable food wrapped in white to be placed at the manger. The Board of Deacons has been designated to make distribution of these gifts. Friday, Dec. 23, at 7 p.m. the annual Christmas party, for all, will be held at the church.

The Christmas spray committee of the Presbyterian Auxiliary will have their handwork ready next Tuesday night, to fill orders. Mrs. H. J. LaBar is the chairman.

Francis Drake, teacher of the Bible Class in the Presbyterian Sunday School, called attention of the class to the fact that the lesson material in the adult study book "The Crossroads" had been prepared by Rev. William B. Easton, brother of the late Phil Easton.

Mrs. Edythe Glebe and John Bedford were dinner guests of Mrs. H. W. Brodhead Sunday.

Water Gap folk who shopped in Stroudsburg last Friday afternoon had to wait until after 8 p.m. to return home because stalled cars on both Foxtown Hill and the Minisink Hills road prevented automobiles from traveling until the roads were cleared.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dutt spent Saturday in Allentown.

Taxpayers To Assist Agents Under 'Do It Yourself' Plan

THE "DO IT YOURSELF" idea has reached the Internal Revenue Service for the income tax filing period beginning Jan. 3, 1956.

No hammer and saw are provided, but pencils, note paper for figuring, and a comfortable chair with proper tax forms right at hand.

In past years the Internal Revenue Service has utilized highly technical personnel to sit down and completely fill out a taxpayer's return. Beginning Jan. 3, the Internal Revenue Service will inaugurate an educational program to teach taxpayers to do the job themselves.

District Director F. P. Graham, Internal Revenue Service, Scranton District, said the manpower used in the preparation of individual income tax returns has been tremendous, diverting personnel from their primary jobs, hogs down the collecting of delinquent taxes, curtails enforcement activities, and ultimately costs the taxpayers more money.

New Policy

The new concept of furnishing information and service to taxpayers during the coming filing period was announced by L. A. Chamberlin, regional commissioner of Internal Revenue of the Philadelphia Region, who said it was part of a new policy laid down by the national office and is a continuation of the policy adopted by the Philadelphia Region late in March 1955.

Heretofore, the personal attention of one agent has been required for each tax return. Under the "Do It Yourself" plan, an agent will be on hand to assist groups of taxpayers as they prepare their own returns. If the taxpayer should run into any difficulty, the agent or assistant, will help the taxpayer over the hump, but will positively not prepare the return for the taxpayer. The only persons who will get complete assistance are those isolated cases where taxpayers are illiterate, are temporarily or permanently physically handicapped, or do not speak, understand or write English.

Many taxpayers are actually surprised as to how easy the preparation of a tax return really is. The change-over gives them knowledge and confidence in handling their tax problems.

Advise Home Work

District Director Graham said he will provide the best possible tax information during the filing period by way of newspapers and other media.

He also said taxpayers could save themselves time and money by preparing their returns at home. This would save them the inconvenience of coming to the Internal Revenue Office. If they run into a problem at home, telephone service will be available.

Further information on the days designated for "Do It Yourself" at the Internal Revenue Office will be announced at a later date.

Recreation Program Set For Jr. Teens

THE JUNIOR "Y" Teens, a recreation program for 7th, 8th and 9th grade boys and girls at the YMCA, will again meet on Saturday at 7 p.m. Last Saturday night the group had the largest turnout of their season and 15 new members joined.

This Saturday the group will be able to use the new swimming pool, dance to the music of the East Stroudsburg High School Band, and play ping pong and other games.

The membership of the Junior "Y" Teens takes in the boroughs of Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg, Shawnee, Delaware, Water Gap and Bushkill. Everyone in the county is invited to attend this YMCA sponsored event.

No Real Bonanza

VERDUN, Que., Dec. 14 (P)—Leslie Ferguson, 15, found a three-mark Prussian coin dated 1776 in change he received at a Verdun store. But experts dispelled the idea it might be of considerable value. They said the coin was in poor condition and probably not worth the 50 cents Leslie thought he was getting.

Kiwanis Club Discusses 1956 Projects

THE STROUDSBURG Kiwanis Club devoted its meeting yesterday afternoon at the Penn-Stroud Hotel to the question of projects for the coming year.

There was a spirit of Christmas with a large decorated and illuminated tree and the song period under Dr. Earl Wilhoite with Numa J. Snyder, accompanist, including suitable numbers.

President Detleff A. Hansen expressed the sympathy of the club to Elwood Hintze in the death of his father-in-law and to Claude D. Cramer in the death of his brother.

The Stroudsburg club was in third place in the 17th division in club action, two points off first place.

The club Christmas program will be held at next week's meeting. Dr. C. W. Dupee, immediate past president, will be program chairman. Guest speaker will be Rev. Luther E. Markin, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of the Mountain, Delaware Water Gap.

Tax Court Upheld In Pennroad Case

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 14 (AP) — The U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals has upheld a U. S. Tax Court ruling that the Pennroad Corp. did not have to report as corporate income a $12,000,000 settlement with the Pennsylvania Railroad, its parent company.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue sought more than a million dollars from Pennroad, which it was claimed was due on the 1947 settlement.

The $12,000,000 represented Pennroad's net of a $15,000,000 settlement of three stockholders suits against the PRR, after counsel fees and other expenses had been deducted.

Chief U. S. Circuit Judge John Biggs Jr., wrote the decision which was concurred in by Judges Herbert F. Goodrich and Gerald McLaughlin.

The mission is to remove busts of Juan and the late Eva Peron. They were placed at the top by mountain climbers in the Peron dictatorship era.

The Green Thumb:

Two New Glads Available; Mite Killers Can Be Used To Control Red Spiders

NEW GLADS: Gladiolus growers will be interested to know there are two new glads available for them. One is Appleblossom and the other is Royal Stewart, 1956 All-America Gladiolus Selections. Appleblossom is a snow white with a faint touch of cream to enhance its throat. Flower spikes are tall, straight, with up to eight or ten well-tailored flowers covering the stem. Plants reach up to five feet and individual flowers measure as much as five inches across.

The other All-American Selection is Royal Stewart, a big grower with strong spikes and deep rich bright red color. It has been called the greatest showman in glads since the Variety Picardy swept the country. Royal Stewart is the result of a cross between Red Charm and an unnamed seedling.

So, if you folks who like to raise glads for cut flowers want the latest in glads, here are two selections you'll want to try. Your seed house has heard of these varieties and should be able to supply you with a few bulbs.

THIS WEEK'S PEST: Last week we told you how to fight mealybugs, a serious pest of house plants. Today, it's red spider, a pest so small that 40 of them side by side could span an inch. Red spider causes the tips of foliage to turn brown or gray, with a fine mottled appearance on the upper surface of the leaves. On the lower surface you find numerous red spiders, their eggs and a fine webbing, telltale evidence the pest is there.

Control: We have good mite-killers available, such as Dmilt, Ovatran, Malathion, etc. Since Malathion is an all-round bug killer, you can use it at the rate of 2 teaspoons to a quart of warm water. Give several sprayings at weekly intervals until the pest is cleared up. Do not breathe the fumes. Best to put the plants on the porch and give them a spraying there. Next week: How to slug another bug—scale insects.

CHRISTMAS FUN: Ever wonder how some folks can make a big square chunky candle with lots of frosty "snow" on it? There's nothing mysterious about this. All you do is melt the wax in a double boiler and mix to a froth by beating in a mixer. Then while in a

For more than 50 years Canada put amounted to more than four has led all other countries in the times that of the rest of the free production of nickel. It's 1954 out-world combined.
